

Decision Making in NEPA Can Be Complex

This imaginary map shows three possible routes between Town A and Town B. Take a few minutes to consider the benefits and challenges associated with each one. Don't forget to consider the potential impacts (positive or adverse) on the natural, built, and social components of the environment.

